

LEVEL 2 EMERGENCY FIRST AID AT WORK

This Ofqual approved course is ideal for smaller workplaces with low health and safety risks.

Who should attend?

Anyone wanting a comprehensive one day first aid course.

What you will learn?

Basic lifesaving first aid and workplace health and safety regulations.

Course content

- Incident management
- The priorities of first aid
- Treatment of an unconscious casualty
- Resuscitation
- Health and safety (first aid) regulations
- Bleeding
- Shock
- Choking
- Seizures
- Burns & Scalds
- Now includes safe use of AED (Defibrillator)
- Catastrophic bleeding (depending on your risk assessment)

Course duration

One day – 6 teaching hours

Assessment and Certification

Continuous assessment by trainer, practical assessments and multiple choice question papers. After completing a final assessment successful candidates receive an Ofqual approved wall certificate plus a credit card sized plastic card certificate deeming you competent and safe as an emergency first aider so you will need to take part in the practical parts of the course. Please contact us for full details. Certification is valid for three years.

You will receive an Ofqual approved wall certificate plus a credit card sized plastic card certificate deeming you competent and safe as an emergency first aider so you will need to take part in the practical parts of the course.

Please contact us for full details. Certification is valid for three years.
This is a practical course so appropriate clothing should be worn.

Course Cost - £70 per applicant - Discount for group bookings